If you find yourself doing a double take this morning with wondering what happened to the calendar, we are having Christmas in July Santa Paws Letter Writing! The photo upper left is of Cooper taken on Cooper's first Christmas, July 25, 2016, at age eight months old. Loving this bit of whimsy on this Friday with having fun with our Letter Writing.

This month is a great excuse to use the unexpected with mixing up seasons with the stationery we use in our letter writing.

If you have considered having a Christmas in July Tea Party there is still time! If we fast forward our wish list for stationery Christmas card supplies, go ahead and order the custom Christmas Return Address Labels this month.

If you happen to find yourself going to be in the area, check out Santa's Workshop – North Pole, NY. They have their 2017 July dates posted: July 7-8, 14-15, 21-22, 28-29.

2017 Dates
July 7-8, 14-15, 21-22, 28-29

An evening of Christmas merriment begins with your arrival at 5:30 PM. You will be welcomed and directed to a reserved family table at Santa's Workshop's very own Mother Hubbards Restaurant. A personalized family candle and place setting for each individual child with a special surprise from Santa awaits. You will be invited to sing along around the campfire with some of Santa's Helpers. Then watch as your child's eyes shine with delight as they experience a family style dinner with the man himself...Santall!

The fun continues after dinner when Woody, one of Santa's toy makers, stops by to show all of the children how he makes toys for Santa at Christmas. Then back out to the campfire to roast marshmallows and make smores.

Start your next morning back at Mother Hubbards for a Character Breakfast before you set out on a magical adventure exploring Santa's Workshop!
