My post today continues talking about pencils, with the ultra-cool Blackwing Pencil Roll. It is perfect following up from my post yesterday on Pencil Cup Holders.

Pencils.com

First of all, we were mentioning Pencils.com back in February with my post on Buddy Holly Novelty Pencils.

Secondly, with the February event #InCoWriMo it was a delight to pen pal letter writing with them TWICE!

Third, and most recently reading today about their new Blackwing Volumes – Vol. 1 (12 Pack). “Blackwing’s first round pencil features a matte grey washcoat finish that lets the wood grain show through, a “blue collar” eraser...”

Blackwing Pencil Roll

“Take your Blackwing pencils with you on the go. ... Each durable waxed canvas roll holds five Blackwing pencils, a memo book and a sharpener, while being flexible enough to adapt to a variety of uses.”

In conclusion, I’m going to be printing off today’s blog post and sending along in a handwritten letter – this one in pencil – to my pen pal at Pencils.com! The countdown continues with only three days remaining until the end of month and end of third quarter for getting our best of intentions letters and cards sent off. So instead of saying put pen to paper, I’m closing with put pencil to paper!

Anchors Aweigh,

Helen
