There is a 2006 paperback on Fast Fun & Easy Fabric Postcards Keepsakes You Can Make & Mail I am already anticipating its arrival.

Last year one of my letter writing blog posts was on Quilting Postmarks; however, today we are talking about Fabric Postcards. In looking for letter writing books on the topic of fabric postcards this one is the first one I'm going to explore; apparently, there are several books on the topic including quilted postcards so more to come!

The official title is "Fast Fun & Easy Fabric Postcards: Keepsakes You Can Make & Mail".

The Author is Franki Kohler and the Publisher is C&T Publishing.

"Tired of "Wish You Were Here" and "Greetings from Orlando"? Fast, Fun & Easy Fabric Postcards lets readers use six simple techniques plus scraps of fabric, photos, and their own creativity to make exciting, completely one-of-a-kind postcards. Ideal for scrapbookers or any crafter, fabric postcards are a wonderful message from the heart."

I'm really looking forward to getting to go through this book. My plans are to try out a few of the six simple techniques they reference are in the book.

Of course, it begs the question about affixing stamps, and do we ever put it into the laundry?!

Anchors Aweigh,

Helen
